

The INC Consulting

Fulfillment Policy

All booking of services are to be fulfilled within the timeline set by the company based on the project or services booked. All deliverables will be sent via electronic mail or physical mail. For any consultations scheduled your service will be completed via in person meeting or a virtual meeting. All meetings will result in review notes for our company's documentation and your personal/professional benefit and record.

Due to the nature of the services provided by The INC Consulting, we cannot offer a full refunds after a consultation meeting has been completed or after services have been being rendered. If your service has not yet been rendered, refunds may be considered. If the service you purchased has already been completed by The INC Consulting refunds cannot be issued.